SUPERVISION

Lesson / performances and events will be conducted in accordance with the Health and Safety Policy and with the Risk Assessment drawn up for the specific event.

All children participating in an out of school lesson / performance or a Carnival event will be accompanied by an adult who agrees to remain responsible for them at all times. All participants in events will be required to complete a registration form giving name, address, telephone and email contacts, names and ages of children and Fox School class number (if applicable). In addition a safety leaflet is circulated to all participants and an agreement must be signed certifying that it has been read and understood and in the case of parents/carers that they have communicated the safety rules to the children in their care and take full responsibility for them abiding by those rules

PHOTOGRAPHS

Regarding use of photographs of children, it is the responsibility of our organisation to obtain parental permission. All parents and carers are written to before the lesson / performances take place, informing them of lesson / performance times, use of materials and procedures, and seeking their permission to use any photos taken during the lesson / performances on the website and in any publicity material. Before taking part in any Carnival parade events, all parents and carers must sign a consent that photos taken during the events may be used on the website and in publicity material. In all cases we will not name any children featuring in our publicity or on our website.

DEFINITIONS OF ABUSE

Lesson / performance leaders/Tutors and volunteers are expected to be aware of the four recognised types of abuse:

Physical Abuse

Physical abuse may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning, suffocating or otherwise causing physical harm to a child.

Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer feigns the symptoms of, or deliberately causes ill health to, a child whom they are looking after. A person might do this because they enjoy or need the attention they get through having a sick child.

Physical abuse, as well as being a result of an act of commission can also be caused through omission or the failure to act to protect.

Possible signs of physical abuse include:

- Unexplained burns, cuts, bruises or welts in the shape of an object.
- Bite marks
- Antisocial behaviour
- Problems in school
- Fear of adults

Emotional Abuse

Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional ill treatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child's emotional development. It may involve making a child feel or believe that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate or valued only insofar as they meet the needs of another person.

Possible signs of emotional abuse include:

- Apathy
- Depression
- Hostility or stress
- Lack of concentration
- Eating disorders

Sexual Abuse

Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, whether or not the child is aware of, or consents to, what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including penetrative acts such as rape, buggery or oral sex or non-penetrative acts such as fondling.

Sexual abuse may also include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at, or in the production of, pornographic material or watching sexual activities, or encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways.

Boys and girls can be sexually abused by males and/or females, by adults and by other young people. This includes people from all different walks of life.

Possible signs of sexual abuse include:

- Inappropriate interest or knowledge of sexual acts
- Nightmares and bed wetting
- Drastic changes in appetite
- Over-compliance or excessive aggression
- Fear of a particular person or family member

Neglect

Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health or development. It may involve a parent or carer failing to provide adequate food, shelter and clothing, failing to protect a child from physical harm or danger, or the failure to ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment. It may also include neglect of, or unresponsiveness to, a child's basic emotional needs.

Possible signs of neglect include:

- Unsuitable clothing for weather
- Dirty or unbathed

GUIDANCE ON HOW TO RESPOND TO DISCLOSURES OF ABUSE

DO:

- Do treat any allegations extremely seriously and act at all times towards the child as if you believe what they are saying.
- Do tell the child they are right to tell you.
- Do reassure them that they are not to blame.
- Do be honest about your own position, who you have to tell and why.
- Do tell the child what you are doing and when, and keep them up to date with what is happening.
- Do take further action – you may be the only person in a position to prevent future abuse – tell your nominated person immediately.
- Do write down everything said and what was done.

DON'T:

- Don't make promises you can't keep.
- Don't interrogate the child – it is not your job to carry out an investigation – this will be up to the police and social services, who have experience in this.
- Don't cast doubt on what the child has told you, don't interrupt or change the subject.
- Don't say anything that makes the child feel responsible for the abuse.
- Don't do nothing – make sure you tell your nominated child protection person immediately – they will know how to follow this up and where to go for further advice

REPORTING PROCEDURES

An accurate written account will be kept of all incidents on an Incident Record Report form (Appendix 2). The incident will not be discussed with anyone other than those who need to know.

The incident will be reported to the designated Child Protection Officer who will use the appropriate reporting systems for the situation e.g. reporting the matter to social services or the police.

If staff or volunteers encounter abuse or suspicious situations of concern they should discuss the concerns with the designated Child Protection Officer who will then take the appropriate action. If the designated person and deputy are unavailable the Social Services Duty Officer (020 7361 3013 or 020 7373 2227) or the NSPCC Child Protection Helpline (0808 800 5000) should be contacted to obtain advice.

CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

This code of behaviour outlines good practice when working with children. An environment which allows bullying, shouting, racism, or sexism, is not acceptable. Listed below is behaviour considered inappropriate in a relationship of trust between an adult and a young person.

- Treat everyone with respect and provide an example you wish others to follow
- Do not get close to or have physical contact with a young person without clearly explaining what you are doing (e.g. correcting the position of a foot, showing a skill in the water) etc. Any physical contact initiated by the child should be politely ended at the earliest possible moment.
- Use common sense when demonstrating skills e.g. discuss your actions with children or young people when contact is necessary
- Parents/carers should always be immediately informed if staff/volunteers have had to do things of a personal nature for a child such as changing clothing, accompanying to the toilet, etc.
- Personal relationships with children - including visits to the home of the worker/volunteer, exchanging gifts, lending or borrowing money and any kind of exclusive, secretive or sexual relationship - are not permitted.
- Plan activities so that they involve more than one other person being present, or at least in sight or hearing of others
- A worker or volunteer should not be left alone with a child or drive a child home alone
- Where residential events or courses are organised males should never enter all female rooms or vice versa and separate sleeping accommodation must be provided for supervisors / trainers and children
- Respect a young person's right to personal privacy
- Provide access for young people and adults to feel comfortable enough to point out attitudes or behaviour they do not like and provide a caring atmosphere
- Remember that someone else might misinterpret your actions, no matter how well intentioned
- Recognise that caution is required especially in sensitive moments of counselling, such as when dealing with bullying, bereavement or abuse
- Use gender, cultural and disability sensitive language
- Do not permit abusive youth peer activities (e.g. ridiculing, bullying)
- Do not jump to conclusions about others without checking facts
- Do not allow yourself to be drawn into inappropriate attention seeking behaviour such as tantrums or crushes but deal firmly and fairly with such behaviour at all times
- Do not exaggerate or trivialise child abuse issues
- Do not show favouritism to any individual
- Do not make suggestive remarks or gestures or tell jokes or stories of a 'smutty' nature
- The designated person is required to keep updated and inform all others in the group of any changes regarding child protection laws or best practice.
